

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

LET'S CONTINUE YOUR SELF-CARE HABITS!

In last month's newsletter, I suggested that you should do something you enjoy, be more social, try something new and also get some exercise! This month, I would like to suggest a way to do all of those things at the same time on Thursday, April 18th, from 5-9:00 p.m. Sign-up for our Country-Western Spring Event! It will be a dinner + dance held on the third floor of the Oasis!

Come and enjoy yourself with your significant other or with a group of friends! There will be good food, camaraderie and a beautiful view of Lake Travis! Of course, you can also get plenty of exercise by line-dancing or boot scootin' on the dance floor! And, what a great way to watch the sun set while listening to the best country-western music by the Bob Appel Band!

You can find the flyer with all of the information and the link to sign-up on the last page of this newsletter. (Please sign-up by Noon on April 11th.) So, get your boots ready, put on your hat and meet me there!

Women's Club of Greater Lakeway*

2ND VICE PRESIDENT

March has arrived with events in each of our 23 active SIG groups. We are so fortunate to have willing volunteers who put their time and effort into making our SIGs a success.

We offer everything from active SIGs such as Hike and Bike to games of strategy such as Bridge, Canasta, or Mahjongg. Perhaps it's time to curl up with a good book as you check out the latest offerings from our many book clubs, or to prepare for spring with Garden Club or Home Inspirations. Join your friends at the Girlfriend's Social Hour or plan for the future with Lakeway Investment Partners. Each of our special interest groups provide social opportunities such as Stitchery and Yarns, Dinner Club, Galloping Gourmets, Let's Do Brunch, Dining Dames, and Expats. There are so many things to do that it's sometimes difficult to make a choice, but whichever event you choose, you can be assured of an entertaining program, good food, and delightful social times. Be sure to check your newsletter and watch your email for details.

Are you interested in chairing one of the current SIGs or serving on a committee next year? Talk to your chair people and let them know. If you have questions about any of our SIGs or have an idea for a new SIG, please contact me by email, phone or text: faithstevens@gmail.com or 512-970-3930.
