

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

*Sunrise, sunset
Sunrise, sunset
Swiftly flow the days
One season following another
Laiden with happiness and tears*

...Fiddler on the Roof

Following multiple sunsets, the WCGL Fall season will soon come to a close. With joy and gratitude, we celebrate all of the women who gave us...the September kick-off luncheon, Dishing on Design with Brooke Grafstrom; the visual sensation of Autumn Jewels and Starry Nights fashion show, chaired by Janet Wright. Our SIGs...Dottie's Follies and Garden Club who jointly orchestrated an authentic garden party featuring the whimsical dancing of the bejeweled Halloween Witches. A fall taste sensation was experienced with Galloping Gourmets' inaugural lunch at Carve restaurant. A delightful gathering was arranged by Girlfriends' Happy Hour; and, the book clubs and other SIGs gathered to share friendship and discussions featuring the best read books in Texas. Hats off to our new SIGs...Mah Jongg Mavens and Haute House Interior Design. And applause, applause to the picnic in the park welcoming 38 new members!

Let us remember seasons past when there were minimal to no gatherings. We dearly missed the camaraderie of WCGL. We thank all of the women who continue to give their gifts of time and talents. This is the foundation of WCGL. And know, we will experience sunrises in the coming months.

Thanksgiving blessings to you and your families.

Sheila Niles, President

1st VICE PRESIDENT

Katie Russell Newland, author of the recently released book, A Season with Mom, will join us at our November 15th General Meeting to share her amazing and inspiring story.

It is a story about the bond shared between a mother and daughter and a road trip to all 30 Major League Baseball parks to fulfill their shared dream. Katie begins the adventure following the loss of her mother to cancer and after she enters remission from her own devastating cancer diagnosis. During the journey she discovers the importance of relishing every joy and struggle along the way.

"It may have taken me six months, more than 270 innings and over 30,000 miles, but I got the message you were trying to tell me all those years ago," Katie writes in a letter to her late mother. "I said yes to me, and I learned how to love the person staring back from the mirror."

Katie's story has captured the attention and hearts of millions leading to coverage on ESPN, People, Good Morning America, the Today Show, Condé Nast Traveler, and others.

Katie Russell Newland is a writer and sports enthusiast with a PhD in language and literacy from the University of Texas at Austin. She lives with her family in Austin.

SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY! Katie will sign and have copies of her book, A Season with Mom, for sale prior to the meeting starting at 9:30 a.m.

Our club is so fortunate to have so many talented, dedicated women who volunteer their time to host meetings, present programs and chair SIGs. They make Women's Club such an exciting, fun adventure for us all. Everything comes together so smoothly that it's easy to forget how much work, planning and preparation goes into each of these events. This month let's take a moment to say thank you to our SIG chairs and their boards. These women donate their time, energy and efforts to the club every single month and they deserve a big round of applause.

We have a little something for everyone in our varied special interest groups. Take a moment now to look over the listings and see what new group you might like to join. Then just contact the chairperson listed at the end of each notice for information on becoming a member. Or if you are interested in starting a new special interest group, just contact me. What a beautiful Fall we are having so far, so many events in Women's Club to take part in.

If anyone has past books from previous Board Member's please let us know so that they may be included in our history at the H.C.

Sheila and I will also be meeting this month to see if there are any clarifications to the By-Laws and Standing Rules for our members. If she deems necessary, she will appoint two other members to join us in making any clarifications needed. This Board will be appointed in December and meet in January and February. Then the changes will be voted on by Executive Board at a special March Meeting and then by the membership at the General March Meeting.
